5. Application assessment process

Complete applications with all the required evidence will be assessed by the Financial Support team (Student Services).

Applications are means tested, based on your household income. . We use the information provided to us by Student Finance England (SFE) to see your household income.

Please note - If your household income is not visible to the team we will ask that you contact SFE to allow University College Birmingham permission to access your household income record. We will be unable to assess your application until we have access to this information.

We will also contact the University College Birmingham Disability and Neurodiversity Support team (DNS) where appropriate to confirm eligibility.

We will consider all the information and evidence provided to us as part of the application.

Please be aware that complete applications take up to 10 working days to assess, i.e., two weeks. This may be longer in busy periods or when the University is closed, i.e., for public holidays. This 10-day period will only start from the point we have received all evidence required.

6. Priorities for assistance

When assessing applications, priority is given to the following groups of students:

- Students with children (especially lone parents)
- Disabled students (especially where Disabled Students Allowance (DSA) is unable to meet particular, individual costs)
- Care leavers and students from Foyers or those who are homeless
- Students that are estranged from their family

Please note that although the above-mentioned students are prioritised, they must still meet all the eligibility criteria.

7. Award Amounts

DSA Equipment

When applying for support for the £200.00 contribution fee for DSA equipment, if your household income amount has been assessed as being below £30,000 per annum, we will award the full amount of £200 needed for the contribution fee. If your household income is above £30,000 per annum, we will award £50% of the fee.

Diagnostic Testing

When applying for support for the cost of a diagnostic test, your level of award will be dependent on the household income amount. The thresholds and funding are as follows:

- £25,000 or below – 100% of the cost of a diagnostic assessment up to £500
- £25,000 - £27,500 – 50% of the cost of a diagnostic assessment up to £500
- £27,500 - £30,000 – 25% of the cost of a diagnostic assessment up to £500

IMPORTANT – The HE Access fund is a finite fund. No applicant is guaranteed an award of funding. We will only be able to award funding to eligible applicants if funding is available.

8. Payment arrangements for successful applications

Where an award is made the maximum amount awarded will not exceed £500.00 where applicable.

If you are awarded support with your £200 contribution fee for DSA this will be paid directly to you. It is your responsibility to pay this money to the relevant supplier to ensure that you can access your DSA funded equipment.

If you are awarded support with a diagnostic test and University College Birmingham are funding 100% of the cost, payment will be made directly to the assessor or relevant company when an invoice is submitted.

If you are awarded a percentage of the cost of your diagnostic test cost, you will need to submit evidence of the cost before we are able to award funding. This should be an official quote from the assessor who will be carrying out the assessment. Where possible we will award funding once your test has been completed and receipts provided.

Any monetary payments will be made by BACS directly into your nominated bank account. This will happen up to 7 days after you have been contacted with your decision of an award for funding.

Important – If you are awarded funding and do not turn up to your assessment but are still charged, University College Birmingham will not pay for these costs.

9. Applying for the Access Fund more than once

If your application to the Access Fund is unsuccessful due to household income and your circumstances change making you eligible, you may apply more than once to the fund.

Students can apply for support with both the DSA funding contribution amount and funding for the cost of a diagnostic test.

Students are not eligible to apply more than once for the cost of a diagnostic test if they have already received funding for this during their time as a student at University College Birmingham unless in exceptional circumstances.

10. Appeals Process

If you are dissatisfied with the decision regarding the outcome of your application, you may appeal within 2 weeks of receiving your outcome email to the Financial Support team (Student Services).

Your appeal will be considered by either the Director of Student Services and Wellbeing or a nominated deputy.
